6. OLD BUSINESS

A. Update on new hire application process - Fire Department

Chief Polzin indicated that one of the nine newly hired probationary firefighter/EMTs has resigned to take a position in Madison. There are seventeen (17) applicants who meet the minimum qualifications and an additional five (5) more applicants being currently vetted to fill existing vacancies. Interviews with the Commission for potential new hires will most likely occur in July.

No action taken.

B. Update on possible Lieutenant promotional process - Fire Department

Chief Polzin indicated that several of the currently employed NBFD Lieutenants are interviewing with other departments and, if they leave, may create vacancies/promotional opportunities. He has looked at the process used by NBPD and is considering adapting a modified version for the Commission to consider at a future meeting. At the present time, there is only one Lieutenant position vacant.

No action taken.
